- Title of the Program : Study on Historical Evidences of Jharkhand
Tribal Museum, Gumla
- Organizing Department / Cell : Department of History
- Date/Duration : January 18, 2019
- Number of Participants : 29
- Objective of the Program:
To know the different aspects of tribal life such as how tribal's decorated their homes, their beliefs and unique tribal items. It is a true mirror of the tribal life of Jharkhand.
- Detail Description of the Event:
The Department of History visited the museum located inside the St. Ignatius school campus on January 18, 2019. The museum was based on the five major tribal cultural lives of Jharkhand. The staff and students observed that there was an arrangement in the museum where one could see the art and articles and at the same time we could hear the audio related to the art and articles. It was thus quite easy to understand the tribal life of Jharkhand. The staff of the department instructed the students to observe each article carefully. The team took note of the history portrayed through paintings and sculptures/statues, different ornaments, tools and musical instruments and other things belonging to the tribal's. The team also purchased homemade herbal items from the museum canteen.
- Outcome of the Event:
The department the History students, were able to reflect on different aspects such as evolution and settlement, social, religious, political and cultural life of the tribal's of Jharkhand.
