 - To understand various aspects of rural politics
 - To motivate the villagers to know their political rights
 - To sensitize the society about the impact of government decision in our life

6. Detail Description of the Event:

The department of political science organized a two-day extension program to Behratoli, Ahurpurwa and Beltoli on May 6th & 7th 2022.

The group consisting of professors and students visited these areas in Mahuadanr block. Villages are about 4 km away from St. Xavier's college Mahuadanr. The department of political science conducted a survey on "political participation and awareness". Through this campaign an attempt was made to understand various issues which are of importance in the present panchayati election. The students interacted with the villagers and tried to understand what are the needs and aspirations of the villagers as well as to see how far the government schemes reach on the ground. Villagers also shared their views and explained how a representative should be, they expressed concern over the increasing corruption in the field of politics and administration.

7. Outcome of the Event :

This field visit program came to know about the political awareness among the villagers.
