- 1. Title of the Program : Study on "Child Labour"
- 2. Organizing Department / Cell : Department of English
- 3. Date/Duration : February 17, 2020
- 4. Number of Participants : 13

5. Objective of the Program:

To make the people aware of the harmful consequences of child labour.

6. Detail Description of the Event:

On February 17, 2020 the team consisting of all the students and faculty members of the Department of English reached Sembarbudhani in the morning. The students of the Department of English prepared a small skit which was performed before the villagers. When the act ended, Jeevan Baxla of semester-1 delivered a speech on child labor. He focused mainly on how education is an important aspect during a child's upbringing, as it allows children to develop the necessary skills they need to progress in the modern world. After the speech, Xavier Ekka of semester-2 came forward to thank each and every person for giving their precious time. When we speak about the necessity of education, we need to keep the parents in the loop so as to teach them the importance of education. Therefore, the team decided to visit each and every house to make people understand the fact that labour at an early stage prevents children from going to school. The team visited 10 to 15 houses and it was very surprising to know that the families had no child labours except three houses.

7. Outcome of the Event:

To aware the importance of education.
