STUDENT DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM WITH THE LOYOLA COLLEGE, MEGHALAYA

Critical Analysis of Realism in English and Indian Literature

Department of English

Date: July 20, 2023

Number of Participants: 27

Objective: To help the students understand what is Realism and its impact on English literature

The Department of English has organized an online session for the students of the Department with the Loyola College, Meghalaya. The key-note speaker of the day was Miss. Benobitha M. Sangma who enlightened the students on the topic saying that Realism emerged as a significant movement in English literature in the mid-19th century, reacting against the romanticized and often fantastical elements of Romanticism. Realist literature aims to depict everyday life and society with a focus on accuracy, detailed description, and an exploration of social issues. This analysis will critically examine the characteristics, themes, major authors, and the impact of realism on English literature.

She had also made the students to understand the major themes of Realism such as

- Social Class and Inequality
- Industrialization and Urbanization
- Marriage and Family
- Morality and Ethics

Outcome:

Students understood that Realism in English literature represents a crucial phase in the evolution of the novel, characterized by its detailed depiction of everyday life, complex characters, and engagement with social issues.
